Valued Customer:

In October 2008, Sure-Fit Security was chosen to become a Medeco Security Center by Medeco High Security Locks. Medeco Security Centers are a select group of Medeco dealers located throughout the United States chosen for their professional business practices and desire to play a principle role in educating consumers about security risks and solutions. At a Medeco Security Center, you will find knowledgeable, factory trained personnel that provide sound security advise, top notch service, and genuine expertise. All of our employees go through extensive security training, becoming an expert on high security and Medeco's product line.

Founded in 1962, we are one of the premier locksmith companies in the Washington metropolitan area. We have a large, state-of-the-art showroom located in one retail location, allowing business and home owners to choose from a variety of products to fit their security needs.

Medeco High Security Locks, an ASSA ABLOY company, is based in Salem, Virginia, and has been a leading lock manufacturer since 1962. Their high security mechanical locks are resistant to picking, drilling, bumping, and all other physical attacks. Medeco's electromechanical products offer audit trails and scheduling in addition to convenience of easy reprogramming. For more information about Medeco High Security Locks, visit their website at <http://www.medeco.com>.

Although we have sold Medeco products for 40 years, becoming an authorized security center allows us to better serve you. Examples of this service include:

- A Medeco Service Center is a place where customers will find knowledgeable, factory trained personnel that provide sound security advice, top notch service, and genuine expertise that far exceeds our competition.
- Sure-Fit Security is the only local Medeco dealer with a Medeco High Security Locks display of the newest and most innovative products available.
- We can offer priority status on orders, reducing turn around time.
- Sure-Fit Security is the pipeline for cutting edge high security products, including the newest generation of electronic locks and cylinders from Medeco High Security Locks.
- Our staff receives detailed product training, so you can have confidence we are the exclusive security experts in the Washington metropolitan area.
